

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office of the Governor

Whereas, The state of South Dakota is the home of Jeanne Ferry, and we are richer because Jeanne lives among us; and,

Whereas, Jeanne Marion Ferry was born June 13, 1926, to Marion and Hazel (Hendrickson) Ferry at their home in Oldham, South Dakota, the third of five children; and,

Whereas, Jeanne received her education at Oldham and Philip schools, graduated from Philip High School in 1944 and received her nursing degree from Presentation College in 1947; and,

Whereas, Jeanne married Rex Eugene Radway on January 10, 1948, and to that union 6 children were born: Sandra, Nancy, Thomas, Todd, Stacy and Rex, who blessed their lives with 12 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren; and,

Whereas, Jeanne served Philip and the surrounding area through her employment at Philip Health Services, has been a pioneer in hospice care for Haakon County, is a member of the Bad River Senior Citizen Center and Presbyterian Women's group; and,

Whereas, Jeanne will observe her 80th Birthday with all the good wishes, fanfare and celebration such a milestone warrants, as her friends and relatives honor her and celebrate her life; and it is fitting and proper for the Governor to make note of this milestone in the life of a woman who has lived an exemplary life for all to emulate:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim June 13, 2006, as in South Dakota, and I join her friends and her relatives in wishing her a very happy birthday, good health, and great happiness.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Second Day of June in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Six.
